ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. The Commandery shall assemble on the first Thursday of each month: provided, however, that in the months of July and August the stated conclaves may be omitted by vote of the Commandery. The annual conclave shall be held on the first Thursday of January.

SECTION 2. The election of officers shall take place at the stated conclave in December, and those to be appointed by the Commander shall be announced immediately after his installation. All the officers shall be installed at the annual conclave in January, unless otherwise ordered by the Commandery.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. The Commander, Generalissimo, and Captain-General, shall constitute a Standing Committee, who shall examine all bills and demands against the Commandery, and approve them if correct. They shall inspect and audit the books and accounts of the Treasurer and Recorder; examine into and report upon violations of the By-Laws; and transact generally the financial affairs of the Commandery, unless otherwise ordered.

SECTION 2. The Treasurer shall receive the revenue from the Recorder; pay all demands against the Commandery when approved by at least two members of the Standing Committee and ordered by the Commandery. He shall keep a just account of all moneys received and paid, and render a true account of the same at the annual conclave. He shall also deliver to his successor, within thirty days after his installation, all the property of the Commandery in his possession.

SECTION 3. The Recorder shall keep a true record of the transactions of the Commandery; collect the revenue and pay it to the Treasurer at least once in three months; shall issue notification to the members of all conclaves, specifying in writing the names, place of abode and occupation of all candidates; shall notify members of committees of their appointment, furnish the chairman thereof with a copy of the vote upon which they were appointed, and attend their sessions if required. At the annual conclave he shall exhibit an account of all moneys by him received and paid, and deliver to his successor in office, within thirty days after his installation, all property of the Commandery in his possession.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. Applications for the Orders shall be submitted to the Commandery and accepted, before a committee shall be appointed. When a candidate is rejected, no member shall question another as to his vote, declare his own, or complain of the result ; any member so offending shall be subject to such punishment as the Commandery may impose ; and that no member may plead ignorance of this rule, the last clause of this section shall be read to the Commandery whenever a candidate is rejected.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1. Applications for membership shall be governed by the same rules as govern applications for the Orders.

SECTION 2. Knights Templars who have been eminently useful to the institution, or to this Commandery in particular, may be admitted to honorary membership at the annual conclave only by the unanimous ballot of the members present, their names having been inserted in the notifications for said conclave. Honorary members shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of members, except that the right to vote shall not pertain to those who were not previously members of the Commandery, and shall not be subject to assessments.

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. The fee for the Orders shall be fifty dollars, which fee shall in all cases accompany the application.

SECTION 2. The fee for membership shall be ten dollars, which fee shall in all cases accompany the application.

SECTION 3. Every member except honorary members and those who have paid the life membership fee, shall pay annually to the Recorder, at or before the stated conclave in January, three dollars for the support of the Commandery.

SECTION 4. Any member of this Commandery whose dues are paid, may become invested a life member, with exemption from annual assessments for the support of the Commandery, upon the payment of a fee of thirty dollars.

SECTION 5. The fee for the Orders or membership shall be returned when an application is rejected.

The fee to the Treasurer shall be twenty-five dollars a year.

The fee to the Recorder shall be fifty dollars a year.

The fee to the Armorer shall be fifty dollars a year.

The fee to the Sentinel shall be two dollars for every conclave he shall attend.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1. Any member who shall neglect to pay his annual dues, shall be liable to suspension from the rights of membership in the following manner :

The Recorder shall, previous to the stated conclave in November, notify in writing all members who are in arrears for their dues, that at the annual conclave next following, the question of their suspension will be acted upon, which notice shall be as follows :

“ You are hereby notified that you are liable to be suspended from the rights of membership in Sutton Commandery for non-payment of dues, and at the annual conclave in January next, the question will come before the Commandery for action unless, at or before that time, those dues amounting to — be settled.”

The notice shall be delivered to the delinquent member, either in person or sent to his last known place of abode. If the residence of such delinquent is unknown, no notice shall be required.

Members suspended for non-payment of dues shall be re-instated only upon payment of all back dues, including the time during which they were suspended, and by a vote of the Commandery.

If at the annual conclave the member so notified shall not furnish satisfactory reason for his neglect to pay his dues, to be determined by vote of the Commandery, or if he shall not at or before that time pay said dues, then he may be suspended from the rights of membership, by vote of a majority of the members present.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1. A Permanent Fund shall be established and styled, The Permanent Fund of Sutton Commandery, and shall consist of the whole amount received from Life Membership; of all donations and bequests to the Commandery; one tenth of the surplus remaining unexpended at the close of each year; and of such additions, as shall from time to time be made by vote of the Commandery. The principal of the fund shall not be expended except by a vote of three fourths of the members.

SECTION 2. The Permanent Fund shall be held in the name and shall be under the control of a Board of Trustees, consisting of the Commander, "ex officio," and two other members of the Commandery, one of which members shall be elected at the annual conclave in January next, for a term of two years, the other shall be elected at the same conclave for one year; and at each annual conclave thereafter, the Commandery shall elect, by ballot, one member of the Board for the term of two years. Each Trustee shall hold his office until his successor is elected and accepts the trust.

SECTION 3. Should any vancancy occur in the Board of Trustees from any cause, it shall be filled by an election by ballot at the next stated conclave, due notice thereof having been placed upon the notifications.

SECTION 4. The Board of Trustees shall carefully and judiciously invest the Permanent Fund in such a manner as in their judgment, shall be safest and most productive, and shall select a safe and suitable place of deposit for the securities and vouchers of the Fund. The Board of Trustees shall keep a full and accurate record of the investment of the Permanent Fund, and at each annual conclave, they shall submit to the Commandery, a full and correct statement of the Fund in detail. They shall pay to the Treasurer for the use of the Commandery, the income derived from the Fund, provided the Commandery by vote so requires; otherwise the said income shall each year be added to, and constitute a part of the principal of the Permanent Fund.

ARTICLE VIII.

SECTION 1. These By-Laws shall not be altered, added to, amended or repealed, unless such alteration, addition, amendment or repeal shall have been reported upon at a previous conclave, by a committee chosen for that purpose; nor then without the consent of two thirds of the members present. Such report must be made, and action thereon had at some stated conclave of the Commandery, due notice thereof being given by the Recorder in the notification of said conclave.
